2. PURPOSE OF THE PAIA MANUAL

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2 of 2000, gives effect to the constitutional right of access to any information held by private bodies that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights. The Act provides that a person requesting information must be given access to any record of a private body, if that record is required for the exercise or protection of a right. However, the right to access any information held by a private body may be limited to the extent that the limitations are reasonable and justifiable in an open and democratic society based on human dignity, equality and freedom as contemplated in Section 36 of the Constitution. This document informs requesters of procedural and other requirements which a request must meet as prescribed by the Act.

2.1. AVAILABILITY

This document will be available on the Company's website, providing customers, clients and other external stakeholders with direct access to the manual.

2.2. THIS PAIA MANUAL IS USEFUL FOR THE PUBLIC TO

4. GUIDE ON HOW TO USE PAIA AND HOW TO OBTAIN ACCESS TO THE GUIDE

The Regulator has, in terms of section 10(1) of PAIA, as amended, updated and made available the revised Guide on how to use PAIA (“Guide”), in an easily comprehensible form and manner, as may reasonably be required by a person who wishes to exercise any right contemplated in PAIA and POPIA.

The Guide is available in each of the official languages and in braille.

The aforesaid Guide contains the description of:

- The objects of PAIA and POPIA
- The postal and street address, phone and electronic mail address of:
 - The Information Officer of every Private Body
 - Every Deputy Information Officer of every Private Body designated in terms of section 17(1) of PAIA¹ and section 56 of POPIA²

4.1. THE MANNER AND FORM OF A REQUEST

² Section 56(a) of POPIA- Each public and private body must make provision, in the manner prescribed in section 17 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act, with the necessary changes, for the designation of such a number of persons, if any, as deputy information officers as is necessary to perform the duties and responsibilities as set out in section 55(1) of POPIA.

The manner and form of a request for / to access to a record of a public body is contemplated in section 11³ and for access to a record of a private body is contemplated in section 50⁴. The assistance available can be from the IO of a public body in terms of PAIA and POPIA or the assistance available from the Regulator in terms of PAIA and POPIA.

All remedies in law regarding an act or failure to act in respect of a right or duty conferred or imposed by PAIA and POPIA are available, including the manner of lodging –

- An internal appeal
- A complaint to the Regulator
- An application with a court against a decision by the information officer of a public body, a decision on internal appeal or a decision by the Regulator or a decision of the head of a private body

The requester must complete Form 2 and submit this form together with a request fee, to the Information Officer of the Private Body. The requester may request the party responsible to confirm whether they hold their personal information, free of charge, provided adequate proof of identity has been given.

The form must be submitted to the Information Officer of the Private Body at his/her address, fax number or email address. If you are a member or client of NUMERAL FINANCIAL SERVICES (PTY) LTD under any of its product offerings, you may contact the call centre on 087 012 5291, to access your information.

The form must:
Provide sufficient particulars to enable the Information Officer or Deputy Information Officer of the Private Body to identify the record (s) requested and to identify the requester.
Indicate which form of access is required.
Specify a postal address or fax number of the request in the Republic.
Identify the right that the requester is seeking to exercise or protect.

³ Section 11(1) of PAIA- A requester must be given access to a record of a public body if that requester complies with all the procedural requirements in PAIA relating to a request for access to that record; and access to that record is not refused in terms of any ground for refusal contemplated in Chapter 4 of this Part.

⁴ Section 50(1) of PAIA- A requester must be given access to any record of a private body if-

- a) that record is required for the exercise or protection of any rights;
- b) that person complies with the procedural requirements in PAIA relating to a request for access to that record; and
- c) access to that record is not refused in terms of any ground for refusal contemplated in Chapter 4 of this Part.

Provide an explanation of why the requested record is required for the exercise or protection of that right.
Should the requester wish to be informed of the decision on the request in any other manner, he/she should state the manner and the necessary particulars on the form.
If the request is made on behalf of another person, the proof of the capacity to which the requester is making the request must be submitted to the reasonable satisfaction of the Information Officer or Deputy Information Officer of the Private Body.
The Information Officer or Deputy Information Officer of the Private Body must notify the requester of the prescribed fee (if any) before further processing the request.
If the request is granted then a further access fee must be paid for the reproduction, the search, the preparation and for any time that has exceeded the prescribed hours to search and prepare the record of disclosure.
If a requester cannot complete the prescribed form, an oral request may be made.

4.2. HOW TO OBTAIN ACCESS TO THE GUIDE

The Company does not transfer any personal information outside the borders of the Republic of South Africa. All personal information collected and processed by the Company is stored, accessed, and managed exclusively within South Africa.

5.9. GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL OF ACCESS TO RECORDS

The main grounds for NUMERAL FINANCIAL SERVICES (PTY) LTD refusing a request for information relate to:

1.	Mandatory protection of privacy to a third party who is a natural person:
	The Information Officer of the Private Body must refuse a request for access to a record if its disclosure would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information about a third party, including a deceased individual.
	Trade secrets of a third party.
	Financial, commercial, scientific, technical information of a third party, other than trade secrets, where the disclosure thereof would be likely to cause harm to the commercial or financial interests of that third party.
	Information supplied to the third party in confidence, and if disclosed would place the third party at a disadvantage in contractual / other negotiations or prejudice the third party in commercial competition.
2.	Mandatory protection of commercial information of a third party:
	The Information Officer of the Private Body must refuse a request for access to a record if that record contains:
	Mandatory protection of certain confidential information of a third party.
	The Information Officer of a Private Body must refuse a request for access to a record if the disclosure of that record constitutes an action for breach of a duty of confidence owed to a third party in terms of an agreement.
3.	Mandatory protection of safety of individuals, and protection of property:
	The Information Officer of the Private Body must refuse a request for access to a record if its disclosure could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of an individual.
	The Information Officer of the Private Body should also refuse if the disclosure would be likely to prejudice or impair the security of NUMERAL FINANCIAL SERVICES (PTY) LTD.
4.	Mandatory protection of records privileged from production in legal proceedings:
	The Information Officer of the Private Body must refuse a request for access to a record if the record is privileged from production in legal proceedings unless the person entitled to the privilege has waived such privilege.
5.	Mandatory protection of research information of a third party and protection of research information of a Private Body:
	The Information Officer of the Private Body must refuse a request for access to a record if the record contains information about research being or to be carried out by or on behalf of a third party or a private body and the disclosure of which would be likely to expose:
	The third party or the private body.
	A person that is or will be carrying out the research on behalf of the third party.

The subject matter of the research, to serious disadvantage.

5.10. AVAILABLE SOLUTIONS WHEN NUMERAL FINANCIAL SERVICES(PTY) LTD REFUSES A REQUEST FOR INFORMATION

NUMERAL FINANCIAL SERVICES (PTY) LTD will, within 30 days of receipt of a request, decide whether to grant or to decline that request and give notice with reasons.

The 30 day period within which NUMERAL FINANCIAL SERVICES (PTY) LTD has to decide whether to grant or refuse the request, may be extended for a further period of not more than 30 days if the request is for a vast amount of information or the request requires the search for information to be held at another location and the information cannot be reasonably obtained within the original 30 day period.

NUMERAL FINANCIAL SERVICES (PTY) LTD will notify the requester in writing should an extension be sought.

When a requester is not satisfied with the decision made, for example, refusing access, imposing an access fee or extending the time period for when a response is due, he/she may lodge an application with a court against the decision made within 60 days of receiving the decision that caused the grievance.
--
